THE SPANIARDS ARE GONE.

City of Rome Arrives Here and Takes Them Away.

The Work of Embarkation Swiftly and Safely Done—Viewed by Hundreds.

The steamship City of Rome, the fourth largest vessel in the world, and the largest one that ever visited this port, at anchored in the lower harbor Sunday afternoon.

The big ocean greyhound was sighted way down on the horizon east of the Isles of Shoals shortly before four o'clock on Sunday afternoon and half an hour later she had dropped anchor just inside of the harbor, opposite Fort Constitution.

The City of Rome was chartered by the Spanish government to convey the Spanish prisoners, captured in the destruction of Cervera's fleet at Santiago, back to Spain. The big vessel left New York early on Saturday afternoon and made an exceedingly quick passage to this port. She is one of the fastest boats that travels across the ocean and for a number of years held the record. She formerly belonged to the Inman line but was recently purchased by the Anchor line steamship company and has been running between New York and Glasgow.

She is 567 feet long, fifty-three feet beam, thirty-seven feet deep and draws seventeen feet of water. Her gross tonnage is 8144 tons.

Pilot John Amazeen of Newcastle went to New York and brought the vessel here without a mishap on the trip.

Those on Board.

On the "City of Rome" were: William Coverly, manager of the Anchor line, W. J. Reilly of the passenger department, Walter G. Young, purser, Mr. A. Pesant, G. A. Brunder and John R. Lytle of Pesant and company. The above gentlemen arrived in this city shortly after five o'clock and visited the Rockingham. Passenger Agent Reilly and Purser Young sought out Deputy Collector J. Frank Magraw and made out their clearance papers in order to prevent any delay.

The party paid the Herald a pleasant visit and they were a most con-cious and obliging party of officials.
They completed all their official business ashore at nine o'clock in the evening and returned to their ship.

The Spaniards Gone.

It was exactly 12 15 o'clock today when the big anchors which held the mammoth steamship City of Rome in the harbor were drawn up and the grating of the chains was the signal to the occupants of the hundreds of boats that surrounded her that all was in readiness to start with the seventeen hundred prisoners of war for their native country.

From early morning until the start was made the harbor was crowded with excursion steamers, yachts, sailboats of all descriptions, dories, wherries, punts and in fact nearly every craft in the port.

There was no change in the program of the embarkation of the men from the prison stockade to the steamship.

The men were aroused this morning long before the sun had appeared over the stretch of ocean and their breakfast was ready and quickly eaten.
By 5.30 o'clock the procession from the stockade to the barges was begun and after the barges were loaded the tug H. A. Mathes steamed down the river with a load on either side.

Three trips were necessary to take the men to the ship and before 11 o'clock the last load had gone up the gangway of the steamship. The scenes attending the embarkation were full of curiosity, but far more agreeable than the sights witnessed on July 10, last, when 692 of the men arrived here on the St.
Louis and on July 15 when 1008 more of the prisoners came on the Harvard.

Admiral Cervera was not present when the first of the men were loaded on the barges. He passed the night with his son at the Rockingham and it was after eight o'clock before the distinguished guests at the hotel finished their meals and bade good bye to Manager Hill and several others who were there to extend to them a farewell.
The admiral and his son walked down town and went directly to the Western Union Telegraph office and sent several cablegrams to Spain.

After this they proceeded to the navy yard ferry landing and went to the yard at 9 o'clock. They called on Commodore Remy and afterward were taken to the ship in his steam launch.
The seventeen hundred men crowded the upper deck of the steamship. The men were apparently in the best of spirits and in eager anticipation of their trip to Spain.

As the big ship swung slowly around in the river she was saluted by all the steamers and the result was one of the greatest dinns ever heard. Among the steamers that surrounded her as she started were the Shoals steamer Viking, the big tug Howell, the tug Piscataqua, Hamilton A Mathes, the steamers Mystic and Samuel Butterfield, all crowded with excursionists and passengers.

The Spanish sailors cheered with all their might and waved their caps as the big ship responded with her deep toned whistle and there was a flutter of handkerchiefs and hats from the excursion boats.

There was a straining of necks to get a sight of Admiral Cervera, but the distinguished Spaniard could not be seen.
The City of Rome rapidly gathered headway out of the river and in less than an hour was out of sight and the Spaniards were gone.

Red Cross Nurses Went With Them.

Five Red Cross nurses, in charge of M. E. Brayman, who have been caring for the Spanish sick at Camp Long, accompanied the Spanish prisoners on the City of Rome to Santander, Spain.
The prisoners a short time ago requested that the nurses be allowed to go with them and Admiral Cervera gave his permission to the plan. The auxiliary also agreed and money was sent to the nurses for their expenses. All are graduates of the Mills training school and have been here since the arrival of the Spanish prisoners. The nurses, who are all males, are very glad to make the trip, and the prisoners express themselves as delighted with the good care that is assured them on their homeward journey.

Wounded Spaniards on Board.

Five officers and thirty-nine seamen of the Spanish fleet destroyed at Santiago arrived here on Sunday from New York on the steamship City of Rome. The party was in charge of Lieutenant Segrera, and was made up of the men who were wounded in the naval engagement and taken to the naval hospital at Norfolk on the hospital ship Solace on July 15. Six of the men who arrived are still on crutches and three others are very sick.

Lieutenant Segrera, who speaks English fluently, said that the authorities at the hospital at Norfolk did not want the men who were still ill to leave the institution. They had insisted in doing so, however, as they were anxious to return to their homes in Spain, and finally, after pleading with their officers, obtained their consent to make the trip, although they are very weak.

The wounded officers on the City of Rome are Lieutenant Luis Fajardo of the Vizcaya; Lieutenant Jose Norval of the torpedo destroyer Furor; Lieutenant Francisco Arderius of the torpedo destroyer Terror, and Assistant Surgeon Gicola Gomez of the Vizcaya. Lieutenant Fajardo has lost an arm. Norval was wounded in the head, Arderius was shot in the arms, leg and face, and Surgeon Gomez was hit by a shell on the arm. Lieutenant Miguel Segrera, the only one of the forty-four unhurt during the fight at Santiago harbor, was on the Cristobal Colon, and when the warship sank he swam to the shore.
There he had to fight the Cubans.

Lieutenant Segrera said Sunday night that at the naval hospital at Norfolk all the prisoners had been kindly treated, and at the time of the parting on Wednesday some of the nurses cried and tears filled the eyes of all the wounded men. The lieutenant further said that three of his men were beyond earthly help, because their severe injuries had led to blood poisoning.

"But we cannot leave them behind," he added, "for we all left Spain to fight together and if necessary we must all die together."

GOV RAMSDELL A GUEST

Eight Thousand People Visited Returned Soldiers at Concord Yesterday CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 11.—Three thousand people from out of the city came by special train today and visited the soldiers, and 5000 more from the city proper were also upon the campground. Owing to the illness of the chaplain there was no religious service, although the Sheridan guards attended St. John's Catholic church this morning.

Gov. Ramsdell was a camp guest, and witnessed evening parade at 5 tonight.
The boys were nearly frozen in their beds last night. They have not sufficient bedding to offset a thermometer that registered 45 degrees above zero, together with a frost, as was the case last night. The heavy overcoats of the regiment are still at camp Thomas, though it was supposed that they had been sent on. In the warmest part of the day soldiers were seen lying out in the sun trying to keep warm. They have not been warm since they reached home and many a without mattresses and have to sleep on the cold, wooden floors.

By reason of these conditions all possible haste is being made to get the regiment away on a furlough. Lieut.
Newcomb said tonight that it may be possible to arrange matters so the men can leave for their homes by Tuesday, and that he could do all in his power to bring about this result.
The 3d regiment band gave two complimentary concerts at the campground today, which were much enjoyed by the visitors. Tomorrow afternoon a complimentary review will be tendered the governor, and even more people are expected to be present from out of the city than today. The sick men are all doing well, and the rate among this class has not increased.

The Dazzler

The Dazzler, the same funny bunch of mirth and melody that made such a favorable impression when it was here last fall, will be seen again at Music hall Saturday evening next. The company remain unchanged from the last visit, which assures the presence of an exceptionally good collection of clever comedians, pretty girls, graceful dancers and bright specialty people.
Much new material has been added to the piece in the way of music, dancers, songs and medleys since the last visit, and everything is right up to date. The popular verdict at the time of its former visit was, that it was one of the best farce comedies that have ever been seen here. With the same clever people in the cast and a lot of new and bright material added to the piece, it also did prove even more entertaining this time.

INVESTIGATING THE KILLING OF SPANIARDS.

Colonel L. G. Dudley, U. S. A., is in this city, having been ordered here by Adjutant General Corbin of Washington to investigate the case of the shooting of the Spanish prisoners on board the U. S. S. Harvard at Santiago.
He has interviewed many of the Spanish prisoners and on Sunday he had a lengthy talk with Admiral Cervera. The government intends to place the responsibility for the shooting of the Spaniards, in order to satisfy the Spanish government. He will complete his duty here today and will then take the testimony of the men who did the shooting.
The marines who fired the fatal shots are now camped on Seavey's island and he has taken their statements.

KINDERGARTENS AND PRIMARY SCHOOLS.

OFFICE OF SUPERSTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.
Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 9, 1898.
Attention is called to the following changes and rules:

Kindergratens are established as follows: For the Farragut district in the Farragut school. For the Whipple district in the Cabot street and Spalding schools. For the Haven district in the Haven school. Children are admitted to the kindergartens between the ages of four years and five years eight months, and must enter during the first week of the fall and spring terms.

Children are admitted to the first grade, primary, only after the age of five years eight months and only during the first week of the fall term.

J. C. SMITHSON,
Superintendent of Schools.

INTERESTING SERVICES WERE CONDUCTED yesterday by the Army and Navy Christian Commission of the Y. M. C. A. The first service was held on the U. S. S.
Lancaster at 10.30, General Secretary Teague being the speaker, and Miss M.
L. Bennett, soloist. At 3 o'clock Rev.
J. G. Dutton spoke at Camp Heywood, and at 4 Rev. Myron Tyler at Fort Constitution. There was a good attendance at each place.

CITY BRIEFS.

Grape jelly is being put up.
Straw hats have been called in.
Football teams are getting into line.
Sweet cider is once more in the market.

Warm days and cool nights are now in order.

The Republican state convention will be held tomorrow.

The excursion boats did a rushing business this morning.

The motormen on the electric are wearing overcoats after supper.

The young idea will be given another course in shooting commencing today.

Frosts in the lowlands out towards the lake were reported yesterday morning.

Quite brilliant displays of the anoraborealis were noticeable on Friday and Saturday nights.

Fort Constitution was thrown open to visitors for the first time on Sunday and hundreds of people visited it.

The soldier boys received rather a cool reception, sleeping on the ground in the open, on their return to Camp Ramsdell.

The summer season will be over at Portsmouth very shortly, now that the Spanish prisoners have gone from Seavey's island.

The Coon club of New Hampshire will hold its annual outing at Boston and Plymouth, Mass., Saturday night and Sunday next.

Next to the Republican state convention, the Rochester fair promises to furnish the most amusement for the money in this State this week.

The New Hampshire soldiers realize that they are no longer sweltering under the tropical sun. The morning campfire has not been wholly out of place since their return.

The annual insurance banquet tendered to the agents of the Granite State Insurance Co. by Hon. Frank Jones will be held at the Wentworth tomorrow evening.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has also lately cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call at the Globe Grocery Co. and get a trial bottle free. Regular size 50c. and $1.
Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

SICKNESS AMONG THE BATTERY
K SOLDIERS.

There are thirty five members of Battery K, heavy artillery, at Newcastle, sick with malarial and typhoid fever.
Four of them are at the Cottage hospital and the rest are being taken care of at of the fort. The sick are having rather a hard time of it away from home and friends and a little attention our citizens can give them will no doubt be greatly appreciated. They are having everything possible done for them but it is not the same as being sick at their own homes.

No-To-Bac For Fifty Cents.
Guarantees relief tobacco habit cure makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All drug stores.

EVEN STRUGGLE FOR SHERIFF.

Some idea can be had of the way the people feel towards the two candidates for sheriff from this city when they consider that on the total vote from the wards so far there is only a difference of twenty seven votes. It would appear to be almost an even struggle between Pender and Collis in the total vote and the result of the caucus has shown that the people are about evenly divided.

LAI D ON THE TABLE.

The proposition submitted by Storer Post, G. A. R., of this city, through department headquarters to the national encampment of the Grand Army, held in Cincinnati last week, to make eligible to membership in the Grand Army soldiers who had served in the war with Spain, was laid on the table.

TO SAIL ON WEDNESDAY.

Orders have been received at the navy yard for the Vicksburg to sail on Wednesday for Newport. The calkers completed their work on Saturday and all repairs on her will be finished by Tuesday.

TO MEET IN THIS CITY.

The Massachusetts Sons of the Revolution have voted to hold their annual fall meet in this city on October 19th and arrangements for the same are already in progress.

P. C. C.

A special meeting of the Portsmouth Cycle club was held in the club rooms on Saturday evening to take further action on their proposed anniversary and field day. Some of the boys were a little dissatisfied with the arrangements as mapped out by the committee and it was finally voted to have a little outing up river with a ball game and sports in the afternoon and to wind up with a grand banquet in Fitchburg hall in the evening.

The boys are planning on a great old time and as there seems to be plenty of married men in the club the ball game will probably be between them and the single fellows.

Honesty Not the Best Policy.

He was an honest young man unused to the ways of society and making a call on one of the most stongunning young ladies of the city. "How I love you," she said. "It seems to me I would give almost any other worldly possession in exchange for beauty."
"Don't mind if you're not handsome," he replied. "It's much better to be kind and good."

Then he went home wondering what had given him a chill.—Detroit Free Press.

Following Instructions.

"Mother," sighed the young wife. "I regard Tom as the most monstrous man that ever lived."
"You put it very strongly, my dear."
"But I mean it. He told me the other day to be more observant to keep posted as to what we would need, and to do my buying when things were cheap. I went right down and laid in a big supply of Christmas presents, and he has severely spoken to me since."—Detroit Free Press.

"Why did you leave your last place?"
"The missus called me names."
"What did she call you?"
"She said I were a domestic, mum; and me as hard-workin' and honest a woman as ever lived!"

A Lively Contest For Delegates.

The republicans of ward two held the largest caucus for years on Saturday evening and it was full of life from the moment the polls opened. There were two tickets in the field, one being known as the Peabody ticket and the other as the Collins ticket.

The ballots came in in a regular stream and the ward room was jammed with people from seven to 9:30 o'clock. The contest was close until the polls were closed, so far as could be judged, but it was apparent to those who had followed the balloting closely that the Collins ticket had won.

The friends of both candidates fought well and the result showed the ward to be about evenly divided between the two men. It was a good natured contest and the best of feeling prevailed at the close of the vote counting.

The following ticket, which was called the Collins ticket, won by a vote of 207 to 170:

State—Dr. A. C. Heflinger, William H. Moore, John H. Broughton, Edward P. Kimball, Herbert B. Dow, Charles F. Shillaber.

Congressional—J. Albert Walker, Charles W. Gray, Charles P. Abbott, Dr. S. F. A. Pickering, S. Peter Emery, Howard O. Nelson.

County—Simon R. Marston, John D. Randall, Fred S. Towle, Harry B. Yeaton, George M. Ayers, John K. Bates.

Ward Committee—William H. Moore, John D. Randall, Frederick M. Stee, A. P. Simpson, George M. Ayers, Harry B. Yeaton, John W. Kelley, Edwin B. Prime, Washington Freeman, F. S. Towle, Morris C. Foye, Simon R. Marston, Will F. Weeks, Charles W. Gray, E. F. McIntire, Herbert B. Dow, A. C. Heflinger, John H. Broughton, M. M. Collins, Wm. A. Ashe, William E. Storer, Edward Bewley, John K. Bates, Jos. H. Gardner, Lemuel Pope, Jr., S. Peter Emery, Warren P. Webster.

AT A MOMENT'S NOTICE

Humor That the New Hampshire Regiment May Have to Move

A report has been current in the city today that the First regiment of New Hampshire Volunteers had received orders not to muster out a man, but to remain in readiness to move at a moment's notice. In connection with this was a rumor that the regiment was to be ordered to Cuba. These reports, however, come without foundation and are merely inducements. An inquiry at Adjutant General Ayling's office in Concord finds that no such orders have been received. If such had been the case it would undoubtedly have been known at that office.—Manchester Union.

A Unique Clock

A unique clock was placed in the working department of the postoffice on Saturday evening. It is called the Bundy registering clock. Besides being an accurate timepiece, it will register the time of every clerk and mail carrier in the office by means of peculiar mechanism below the dial. Each carrier and clerk has a number which corresponds to a numbered key. On arrival of the employee at the office he inserts the key in a slot and turns it around which registers on a tape the hour of his arrival at the office. When a carrier leaves on his route he is obliged to register his departure and also when he returns. The clock is an accurate register of each man's hours of work. It is a wonderful piece of machinery. The postoffice department is putting these clocks into every carrier office in the country. They cost $100 each and are manufactured by the Bundy Clock Co., Binghampton, New York.

Re-opening of Public Schools

POLICE NEWS

Items Gathered at the Station Today by the Herald Reporter

Things were quite lively around the police station on Saturday evening and the officers were kept busy for awhile.

Officer Robinson started to take one of Uncle Sam's sailors, who was freaking on Market square, down to the ferry boat, when a friend started in to do the officer. There was a grand mixup for awhile, but in no time the officer was marching up Market street with a sailor lad under each arm. They were locked up for the night.

A little later an officer brought in a fellow from Deer street on complaint of his wife. He was allowed to go on Sunday morning, for there is no doubt but what the woman was as much to blame as he was.

Charles Pierce, the Lone Fisherman of the Cocheco, wandered into the station house about midnight after a night's lodging. He is making his regular visit to Portsmouth.

A female, who gave the name of Jennie Kennan, was picked up in an intoxicated condition by Assistant Marshal West. She had been working in this vicinity and was put aboard the Pullman for her home in the east.

Officer Holbrook brought in a drunk on marine from Market street and that wound up the evening.

There was but one arrest last night, that for drunkenness. The arrest was made by Officer Quinn on Middle street at 7:30. There was no police court this morning.
